

"EMH are the most friendly people I know. I get on with them very well and we go out for meals together. My flat is bigger than the old one I lived in, it is perfect now, especially with my new boiler."

We help vulnerable people live an enjoyable, independent life by advocating on their behalf or by providing activities, support, care, and housing that matches their needs.

" I like living in my flat because I have been able to choose what décor and furniture I like. I have a good size flat which is close to town and shops.

I like my own space but I also have people to talk to when I need it. It is very good."
